Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

Ascension Health (Ascension Health) will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability or veterans’ status. Ascension Health will take affirmative action to ensure that applicants are employed, and the employees are treated during employment, without regard to their race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability or veterans’ status. Such action shall include, but not be limited to the following: employment, promotion, demotion, or transfer; recruitment or recruitment advertising; layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensation; and selection for training. Ascension Health agrees to post in conspicuous places, available to employees and applicants for employment, this Affirmative Action and EEO Policy.

Ascension Health will, in all solicitations or advancements for employees placed by or on behalf of Ascension Health, state that all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability or veterans’ status.

Ascension Health shall base employment decisions on the principles of equal employment opportunity and with the intent to further Ascension Health’s commitment to affirmative action and equal employment. At no time will any covered employee, or covered applicant for employment, who exercises his/her rights pursuant to Ascension Health’s Affirmative Action program be subject to discipline, or have his/her opportunities for employment adversely affected.

Ascension Health invites any employee or any applicant for employment to review Ascension Health’s written Affirmative Action program. The AAP is available for inspection upon request Monday through Friday by appointment in the System Office HR department. Any questions should be directed to Steven J. Younes, Ascension Health’s EEO Administrator.

Applicants are encouraged to identify their race and gender. This self-identification is strictly voluntary and confidential, and will not result in retaliation of any sort.

Employees are invited to self-identify as an individual with a disability or a covered veteran. This self-identification is strictly voluntary and confidential, and will not result in retaliation of any sort.
